Designer Thom Filicia
on how to make a
Miami house a home.

Thom Filicia of Queer Eye for the Straight Guy fame has been visiting Miami since childhood, and is designing the common areas of Biscayne Beach, a 51-story condo set to break ground in Edgewater early next year.

Designing the Boom

HIGH-END DESIGN FILLS MIAMI'S MOST LUXURIOUS SPACES. BY JORDAN MELNICK

Which furniture trends excite you?

I love furniture that feels fabulous and looks chic. You don't want to be like, "It looks great, but I'm going to go sit on my bed."

Best design advice?

Your interior should be a very smart example of your personality. Before you worry about what your house looks like, you have to be confident in the way you project yourself.
