

ON THE SCENE

By Michael Muzquiz

Estate of Excellence

Realty gets social with a most desired host.

THE PARTY

Since the announcement that Thom Filicia will make his Miami design debut with the Biscayne Beach residential high-rise, the dapper tastemaker has become a most ubiquitous guest of honor—and in Miami, that's no small feat. The latest of these gatherings was a private dinner at the Gary Nader Fine Art Gallery in Wynwood hosted by Filicia, as well as top brass from Eastview Development, GTIS Partners and Cervera Real Estate, the developers and realtors behind the project.

THE GUESTS

Realtors! Developers! Oh, my! Needless to say, the guest list was big on real estate types. Among these: Ali Lamadrid, Alicia Cervera Lamadrid, Gingi Beltran and Sildy Cervera.

THE DETAILS

With cuisine by Mena Catering and art galore, the dinner had its musts in check. The highlight of the evening came when Filicia revealed details about the project's Penthouse Collection of homes, as well as the specifics on Biscayne Beach's bay-front beach club, a fun-in-the-sun deck with a pool boasting 335 linear feet of land that directly faces the waters of Biscayne Bay.

[SOCIAL CIRCLES]

Sildy Cervera

Giorgio Vecchi and Bento Queiroz

Cristina Gort and Perla Mascheen

The party's dinner table

Ali Lamadrid and Taylor Collins

Guests mingling before dinner at Gary Nader Fine Art Gallery

Thom Collins and Thom Filicia

Reid Borens and Alicia Cervera Lamadrid