Beach Life

Call it the best of both worlds: a luxury beach club resort with all the amenities of a convenient downtown location. That's Biscayne Beach, the new 399-unit hi-rise in Miami's East Edgewater neighborhood. The luxury development will feature interiors by acclaimed Celebrity Designer Thom Filicia with a range of 1-4 bedroom floorplans, all with floor-to-ceiling windows, oversized balconies and sweeping views of the bay, beach and city skyline. All that, plus a white-sand beach? Sounds like perfection; BiscayneBeachResidences.com. — Jacquelyn Benson
