

Queer Eye for Condos in the Sky

Snapped at the Gary Nader Fine Art gallery in Wynwood: guest celeb interior designer Thom Filicia, Cervera Real Estate's Alicia Lamadrid, and Eastview Development's Reid Borens. Forever known as one of The Fab Five on Queer Eye for the Straight Guy, Thom is making his Miami design debut as design partner at Biscayne Beach, a 399-unit high-rise condo being developed by a JV of Eastview and GTIS Partners; Cervera is sales agent for the development. Ground will break next spring, with a 2016 delivery slated for the 51-story tower in East Edgewater.
